

MOLECULAR DIAGNOSTICS WORKSHOP

1ST & 2ND MAY 2012

NCBID – WALLACEVILLE, 66 WARD ST,
UPPER HUTT

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

Abstracts should be emailed to the workshop co-ordinator by 20th March 2012. The topics for the workshop include:

- New developments & techniques
- One Health
- Management of molecular work in the diagnostic laboratory
- Molecular epidemiology
- High throughput sequencing and analysis
- Biosecurity
- Genetically modified organisms

---

Note: Abstracts must be prepared in Arial 12pt, the body of the abstract to be no longer than 250 words, and include name(s), affiliation(s) and your contact email(s)
Abstracts will be considered for oral or poster presentation. Oral presentations, including questions, are expected to be no longer than 15 minutes. Authors will be informed by the beginning of April if their abstract has been selected for oral or poster presentation.
Details regarding the format of poster presentations will be circulated to the appropriate authors in due course.

For further information, please contact:
Diane Cummings, Workshop Co-ordinator
MAF Biosecurity New Zealand
Phone: 04-8945600
Email: diane.cummings@maf.govt.nz