

NAEAC POLICY ON COMMERCIAL CLONING

NAEAC agree:

“That the welfare of animals resulting from commercial cloning by an established process, used routinely, is fully covered by the general provisions of the Animal Welfare Act 1999, although it does not fall within the research, testing and teaching (part 6) provisions.”