1. Statutory authority

Pursuant to section 60, section 60A, section 62(1) and section 167 of the Animal Products Act 1999 I notify the following:

(i) the issue under section 60 of the export requirements for bovine semen to Papua New Guinea BOVSEMEC.PG dated 21 March 2013;

(iii) the determination under section 62(1) of the format and content of the official assurance for bovine semen to Papua New Guinea.

This notice takes effect from the 21st of March 2013.

Dated at Wellington this 21st day of March 2013.

Signed: Howard Pharo BVSc, MScTAD, MPP, MANZCVSc
Manager Import and Export Animals
Animal and Animal Products Directorate
Standards Branch
(acting under delegated authority)

2. Papua New Guinea requirements

Bovine semen exported from New Zealand to Papua New Guinea must be accompanied by an official assurance in the form of a completed zoosanitary certificate.

The zoosanitary certificate as specified below must be completed and certified, after due enquiry, by an Official Veterinarian of the Ministry for Primary Industries.

Explanatory note:

If the zoosanitary certificate is not certified then the bovine semen does not satisfy the conditions in the notice. Likewise, if the bovine semen does not satisfy the zoosanitary requirements in the certificate, then the certificate will not be certified.

EXPORT CERTIFICATION

(This is not part of the official certification)

COMMODITY: BOVINE SEMEN

COUNTRY: PAPUA NEW GUINEA

NOTES: This certificate replaces the one dated 11 May 1993 and is based on conditions from Papua New Guinea dated 4 May 1993. The changes that have been made to this certificate are reformatting and minor editorial.

1. An Import Permit is required.
2. An Official Veterinarian means a veterinarian authorised by the Veterinary Administration of the country to perform animal health and/or public health inspections of commodities and, when appropriate, perform certification in conformity with the provisions of the chapter of the OIE Code pertaining to principles of certification. Veterinarians authorised or accredited under the Animal Products Act 1999 can be termed 'Official Veterinarians'.

Section 61A of the Animal Products Act 1999 states that ‘The Crown is not liable, and nor is the Director-General or any employee of the Ministry liable, for any loss arising through the refusal or failure of the relevant authority of an overseas market to admit export animal material or animal product to that market’.
